Key Contacts For further information about the MBA programs, please email genmgmt@dow.com. Following the merger of Dow and DuPont the new company, DowDuPont has the intent to separate into three independent, publicly traded companies in Agriculture, Materials Science and Specialty Products. Whilst in the process of starting up the independent companies, hiring will continue to be aligned to the heritage companies.

How to Apply Dow has four programs for MBAs: MBA - Finance Leadership Development Program, MBA - General Management Program, MBA - Sustainability Leadership Program and MBA - Treasury Leadership Development Program – go to Development Programs. They also run a General Management MBA Program for current students, which aims to create an accelerated path to senior leadership for a few exceptional people who can bring new ideas and insights to the opportunities and challenges facing Dow, as well as create a pipeline of future executive leaders for the company. The company is preferably looking for MBAs with 5-7 years of work experience at an operating company.

International Opportunities The MBA programs are mainly available in North America although they involve extensive international travel and Dow has recruiting events in Europe, Latin America, the Middle East and Africa. Go to Recruiting Events for more information.

Key Dates Go to Search Job Openings for the latest dates and links to obtain full details and make an online application.

Additional Information Dow combines the power of science and technology to passionately innovate what is essential to human progress. The Company is driving innovations that extract value from material, polymer, chemical and biological science to help address many of the world's most challenging problems, such as the need for fresh food, safer and more sustainable transportation, clean water, energy efficiency, more durable infrastructure, and increasing agricultural productivity. Dow's integrated, market-driven portfolio delivers a broad range of technology-based products and solutions in high-growth sectors such as packaging, infrastructure, transportation, consumer care, electronics, and agriculture. Dow and DuPont merged in August 2017 to become DowDuPont Inc. DowDuPont is a company with net sales of $62 billion (FY2017) and leadership positions in three global divisions: Agriculture, Materials Science and Specialty Products. The company, which combines the complementary portfolios, resources and capabilities of Dow and DuPont, intends to pursue separation into three independent publicly traded companies within 18 months of the close of the merger, subject to Board approval. Each company will have its own clear focus, scale advantages, and an enhanced ability to deliver superior solutions and choices to customers.

Patricia 'Teesha' Hernandez, Director of Organizational Development or Jennifer Miller, US Manager, University Talent Acquisition Europe - Email: MBA.Europe@emerson.com.

How to Apply

Emerson interviews more than 400 MBA candidates and recent MBA degree recipients every year in the United States for the US full-time MBA Programme. Full-time positions are offered to MBA graduates who have at least three years of prior work experience and have received their MBA within the past three years. Participation in Emerson's MBA Leadership Program puts these people on a fast track to leadership positions within the company. Emerson offers 35 to 40 full-time positions annually.

Forty to fifty paid summer internships for MBAs are offered each year to high-potential individuals currently enrolled in MBA programs at top-ranking universities. MBAs will gain hands-on experience while working with some of the most talented leaders in the industry. Internships are typically offered in marketing, operations, supply chain, strategy, human resources, business development as well as other functional areas.

The Europe Rotational MBA Program is set-up for a 24-30 month period and its aim is to provide MBA graduates with challenging assignments that have a high degree of responsibility and visibility throughout the European business. Besides an individualized career path, members of this program are also assigned mentors and participate in a program designed to grow their leadership potential.

All applications should be made online or through the career centre of your business school. Questions can be emailed to MBA.Europe@emerson.com

International Opportunities

Company Fidelity Worldwide Investment

Fidelity International, Oakhill House, 130 Tonbridge Road, Hildenborough, Tonbridge, Kent TN11 9DZ, UK
+44 (0) 1732 361144

www.fidelity.co.uk

Key Contacts The dedicated email address for MBA applicants/enquiries is mba.recruitment@uk.fid-intl.com

How to Apply Interested applicants should go to Fidelity's dedicated recruitment website at Fidelity Recruitment. Here, they should select their locations or preferred working region to access the homepage most appropriate to them.

For the UK and Ireland, opportunities are available for MBAs as an Equity Research Analyst. Go to MBA and follow the links for full information. Each year, a limited number of summer internships are also available where successful candidates can learn from the best investment professionals in the world. Internships can lead to a full-time position with Fidelity once participants have completed their MBA. See Internships. Typical career paths for an MBA within Fidelity are to develop into a Portfolio Manager or become a Career Sector Analyst.

For European MBAs, candidates start work in London and therefore recruitment of MBAs is undertaken by the company's Cannon Street office. Interested applicants should go to Fidelity Recruitment and select 'UK and Ireland' for information and to apply. For candidates who are still at Business School undertaking their MBA, it is more than likely that they will need to access Fidelity job opportunities through their designated careers services. On-campus interviews may vary from Business School to Business School and may also vary across the Fidelity locations - London, Boston, Hong Kong, India, and Tokyo.

International Opportunities MBA opportunities are available in the UK, Hong Kong, Australia, Japan, Korea, Singapore, India, and China.

Key Dates Monitor MBA Programmes for the next round of recruitment and to make an online application.

Additional Information Fidelity International is an international provider of financial services and investment resources that help individuals and institutions meet their financial objectives. Once known primarily as a mutual fund company, Fidelity has adapted and evolved over the years to meet the changing needs of its customers. Fidelity's 6,500 employees work in offices in 24 countries across the UK and Continental Europe, India, Africa, Asia-Pacific, the Middle East, and South America. The company invests US$279 billion (as at 30th September 2017) globally on behalf of clients in Asia-Pacific, Europe, the Middle East, and South America. Graduates voted Fidelity the 3rd 'Best Graduate Employer (Banking and Finance)' in 2016's TheJobCrowd awards.

How to Apply The IFC Young Professionals Program is the successor to the previous GTT Program. It is a 3-year rotational program for MBA, JD or Masters Graduates. IFC YPP offers an opportunity to launch a global career as an investment professional helping to build the private sector in developing countries. Participants join as Associate Investment Officers or Investment Officers, depending on the level of experience – responsible for identifying, structuring, closing and monitoring IFC’s loans and investments – and build their expertise through assignments in different countries. IFC Young Professionals join IFC in September of each year. Upon joining IFC, participants spend 4-6 weeks in Washington before they are then enrolled in a 4–5-week residential Investment & Credit training course, where they learn IFC’s investment process, investment and credit culture, and undertake other professional training. Upon completion of the induction programs and training course, participants report back to their home duty stations and immediately begin working directly with project teams and clients sourcing, executing and monitoring investment transactions.

The IFC also runs a paid Summer Internship Program for candidates in the first or second-to-last year of an MBA or similar graduate program. Summer interns are hired each year for a minimum period of four weeks between May and September to work on discrete projects in Washington, DC or in one of IFC’s country or regional offices. Follow the links for details of the full criteria.

International Opportunities The IFC YPP is primarily based in Washington DC but candidates can then be relocated to one of the IFCs international offices. IFC hires investment officers directly into its country and regional offices on a year-round basis. Such positions are advertised on the website under Current Opportunities. Interested and qualified applicants to the YP Program may also be referred for these positions.

Key Dates Applications for the IFC Young Professionals Program are closed, interested applicants are advised to check back in August 2018 for details of the 2019 programme. The 2018 Summer Internship Program has now closed.

Additional Information IFC, a member of the World Bank Group, is the largest global development institution focused exclusively on the private sector in developing countries. Established in 1956, IFC is the largest multilateral source of loan and equity financing for private sector projects in the developing world. It promotes sustainable private sector development primarily by financing private sector projects and companies located in the developing world, helping private companies in the developing world mobilize financing in international financial markets and providing advice and technical assistance to businesses and governments. Holding a $90 billion portfolio touching almost every major industry, the company now reach millions of people in more than 120 countries.
